

Advanced Light Wire Functional Appliance (ALF)

The ALF was developed by Dr. Derek Nordstrom about twenty years ago to develop dental arches more effectively than other treatments. It uses a light wire framework that mostly rests on the tongue side of the teeth. By using light forces, these wires are capable of correcting many more jaw problems than braces or expansion appliances. Light forces over time can move mountains.